

PA Parent and
Family Alliance

Learning to Fly While Locked Down: Helping Middle and High Schoolers Through a Global Pandemic

This presentation will explore the unique developmental challenges of middle and high school students during a pandemic. We will explore how caregivers can support the healthy development of their adolescents despite the difficulties of the pandemic.

May 20, 2021 7:30pm

To register or for more information:

<https://www.paparentandfamilyalliance.org/upcoming-events>

